

Brooke Taylor has 38 years of legal experience, including family law cases, criminal cases personal injury, real estate and business litigation. He has taken cases to trial in 12 Washington counties, and in Federal Courts in both Seattle and Tacoma. He was the elected prosecuting attorney in Clallam County from 1971 through 1975, and has served as a Superior Court Commissioner for the last 20 years.

Mr. Taylor graduated from Port Angeles High School, Stanford University, and The University of Virginia School of Law. He has been heavily involved in community service since his high school days, earning him a National YMCA Distinguished Service Award in 1994, a Distinguished Service Award from Clallam County Pro-Bono lawyers in 1999, and designation as a Clallam County “Outstanding Citizen” in 1999.

Mr. Taylor has consistently received an “A” rating in the Martindale & Hubbell national legal directory, and is Clallam County’s only “Super Lawyer” in the 2007 evaluation by “Washington Law & Politics”, and was the highest rated of all Superior Court candidates in the recent Clallam County Bar Association evaluation survey. He is the only Clallam County lawyer ever elected president of the 30,000 member Washington State Bar Association in its 118 year history. Brooke Taylor will bring extraordinary experience, unquestioned integrity and proven ability to the Clallam County Superior Court.
